Intempus is the maker behind one of the most innovative time registration systems in the Danish market. We are an 8-year-old investor-backed company with more than 17.500 paying users in Scandinavia. Our dedicated team of 20 is working out of offices in Copenhagen, Aarhus and abroad, where we are building and selling the app our customers love.

Right now we are looking for a new member who wants to become part of our ambitious team of developers and join our journey of growth.

INTEMPUS LIFE

Intempus is a modern tech company with a flat hierarchy and innovation in our hearts. We believe in basing company decisions on merit, and therefore encourage all team members to contribute with new ideas and inputs to create a better experience for our users.

In order to build scalable solutions for our customers, we need the strongest team possible. Joining Intempus you will become part of a fun, friendly and social team that has the freedom to design our own processes.

PERKS

- Weekly hack afternoon
- Flexible work hours, where you can work from home or at the office
- Central location in Copenhagen (150 meter from Vesterport station)
- Social events with Friday bars, paintball, go-karts, and game nights
- Pick-your-own dev machine
- When you grow, we grow! Therefore we encourage all team members to engage in peer-to-peer learning, external courses and conferences
